

16th Century Painted Room, Ledbury

Artist-in-Residence Jeanette McCulloch

Jeanette McCulloch will be artist-in-residence, making art in response to the designs and artwork on the walls of the 16th Century Painted Room, Church Lane, Ledbury in March 2025.

You are invited to come and meet Jeanette and see the art she is making in situ during the residency, she will be there in-person on:

Monday 3rd March, Tuesday 4th March,
Wednesday 5th March, Friday 7th March,
Monday 10th March and Friday 14th March.

16th Century Painted Room March Opening Hours:
Monday-Saturday 11.00am to 4.00pm

Jeanette will also be facilitating three Art Workshops:

Transfer Printed Textiles

Inspired by the 16th Century Painted Room, Church Lane, Ledbury, you'll paint patterned designs, transferred onto fabric. These form part of a group artwork, but you'll also have textile prints to take home. Working with artist Jeanette McCulloch.

10.30am-1.00pm Monday 17 March 2025

Free but ticketed, booking is essential. Adults

Lino Printed Cotton Tote Bag

Using ready-made plant themed lino blocks, you'll print onto a cotton tote bag, using Jeanette's designs inspired by the 16th Century Painted Room, Ledbury. Working with artist Jeanette McCulloch.

10.30am-1.00pm Saturday 22 March 2025

Free but ticketed, booking is essential. Adults

Create a Tudor Knot Garden

Inspired by the 16th Century Painted Room, Ledbury, you'll create patterned papers using cut-foam printing blocks to create a decorative collage knot garden. With artist Jeanette McCulloch.

1.00pm-3.30pm Saturday 29 March 2025

Free but ticketed, booking is essential. Children aged 12+ and Adults

Contact Ledbury Town Council 01531 632306

email:tourguides@ledburytowncouncil.gov.uk for booking details.

Funded by
UK Government

Herefordshire
Council